with mari

The annual WAA banquet is officially set for Sunday afternoon, Mar. 31, as I learned from the higher-ups last night. As in the past two years the "fest" will be held at the University Women's Club.

The girls will arrive on the scene at 4:30 and the dinner bell will sound at 5:15. I haven't heard about the menu yet, but will pass on the good word as soon as I am able.

With most of the WAA membership attending school, I know how you must have to pinch pennies. So work quickly and sneak $2 from your piggy bank and get it to either one of the ticket selling managers—Kathy Nishi or Nori Shiozaki.

Basketball players can easily bring their money to the games on the coming Sundays and purchase their tickets there. Others may do the same by writing to Kai at 660 S. Soto or to Nori at 112 N. Vancouver with check or money order. Whatever you do, I'd advise you to do it by Mar. 17.

At the stroke of midnight, or 1:01 a.m. Mar. 18, the price will be upped to $2.55. And if you don't buy them by Mar. 27, you can't go at all.

It was not stressed, but I believe that each volleyball and basketball team MUST be represented by a minimum of four regular players to be eligible for the sportsmanship trophies.

General chairman is vesp. Bambi Hirata. Handling the invitation chores are Yoko Watanabe and Yoko Konya and of course Mame Nishi and Shiozaki with the selling duties.

"My Fair Lady" is the theme of the shindig when all the awards for the past year will be duly presented and the 1957 cabinet will be installed.

Two Sundays ago the WAA cabinet knocked heads and drew up a temporary ballot to be presented in the general membership for additional nominations. General nominations are slated for Mar. 10 in between games at Belmont High School and elections will be held on Mar. 17 and through mail balloting for those who participated in bowling and volleyball.

Most of the nominees have been notified of the coming elections.

In order that the girls may look over a sample ballot before the general meeting, Mar. 10, president Anne Kim has released the following list of names.

For president—Kay Yamamoto and "you're truly"; vice-president—June Masate and Jane Ishii; recording secretary—Jean Takushi; Jeanne Takida; Nancy Konya; corresponding secretary—Stella Nakadate; Ethel Yoshida, Taya Noda; Nancy Kuriyama, Naomi Fukuta.

Treasurer—Eini Nakasota; Grace Oda; Agnes Kajioke, Hideo Shimomoto, Irene Matsui; membership secretary—Joyce Konya, Aiko Utsumi, Alice Konishi; publicity-historian—Frances Inouye; June Hashimoto, Betty Nakasora, June Tsukida, Tsuki Matsuhara.

Bowling commissioner—Perry Kusumoto, Mae Mukogawa, Kathy Nishi; basketball commissioner—Angela Kuroiwa, Irene Ende, Kimi Kori; volleyball commissioner—Gerry Yamamoto, Judy Okada, Tosh Abasaki and Shirley Arai.

The above is only nominations from the cabinet, so the others are asked to add names to the ballot at the meeting.

RACKING UP THE HARDWARE

CROSS COUNTRY STARTS SEASON

With one day remaining before their first meet the Cross Country teams make ready for their opening debate.

The teams will meet the Fullerton harriers on their stomping grounds. The Indians, last year's Sunset League runners-up, will run against the Argos, last year's third place team, in the opening meet.

Leading off for Garden Grove will probably be Tom Bonenna, last year Varsity letterman, followed by Bill Nablack, also a returning letterman. On down the line will be Roy Nakula, Earl Northcutt, Lynn Schreyer, and more outstanding runners, making the future season look pretty good.
